Self-Paced Lab Access Information

While purchasing self-paced, on-demand lab access on the Fortinet Training Institute does not have a set expiry date like exam vouchers, self-paced courses do eventually retire. Once a course retires, you will no longer have access to the lab within. If a course is being retired, the expiry date will be posted to the course in advance.

To purchase an exam voucher or lab access using a coupon code

1. In the course on the Fortinet Training Institute (https://www.training.fortinet.com), click the Buy Now button associated with the item you want to purchase.

   The Checkout page appears. Note that the product subtotal will appear in the currency of the country you are currently in. For example, if you are in Canada, the cost appears in CAD. If you are in France, the cost appears in EUR.

2. In the Zip/Postal Code field, enter your zip or postal code (or equivalent for your country), and then click Continue.

3. Click the Add Coupon link.

4. In the Coupon Code field, enter the coupon code, and then click Add Coupon.

If the coupon code is valid, a message displays indicating it has been applied and the product subtotal reflects the discounted amount.

5. Select your method of payment to complete the check out.
